Here comes Summer and a new concept from Agnition!!

The business environment today is inherently complex, constantly changing and focused on customer satisfaction.

This summer, why not boost your knowledge and pick up some new business skills at Agnition Summer Schools?

Ever wondered....

- Have you ever wondered what Coaching is?
- Ever thought about presenting without the dreaded Powerpoint?
- Want to find out what Customer Service really means?
- Wonder what Competencies are and how to use them?
- Need to update yourself on trends in thinking on Project Management?
- Want to know what the top five problems are for the Project Manager?
- Like to see a new way to Size, Prioritise and Optimise your workload as your business changes?

Booking Information

Running in July and August, the Summer School costs 500 euro to attend four morning workshops from a series of eight. Summer Schools will be held in Waterford and Dublin. Alternatively, we can run a Summer School in house for you.

Places are limited so book early!
